

Criminal Justice Student Organization

The purpose of the Criminal Justice Student Organization is to improve educational and career activities; to promote professional, academic and public awareness of criminal justice issues and to provide a unified voice for students of criminal justice.