

North Campus Community Service Club

The goal of the North Campus Community Service Club is to organize and provide volunteer activities and opportunities to all willing participants and to encourage student leadership and involvement in local communities.